NOTICE OF INITIAL DETERMINATION ON VIOLATION OF SECTION 337

Administrative Law Judge Cameron Elliot

(October 21, 2021)

On this date, I issued an initial determination on violation of section 337 in the above-referenced investigation. Below are my Initial Determination and the Conclusions of Law from said filing, which are a matter of public record. A complete public version of the Initial Determination will issue when all the parties have submitted their redactions and I have had an opportunity to review such redactions.

SO ORDERED.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

(1) Complainants have proven that at least one Accused Product within the scope of this investigation infringes all asserted claims of U.S. Patent No. 10,091,186.

(2) Complainants have not proven that any Accused Product infringes any asserted claim of U.S. Patent No. 10,298,564.

(3) Respondents have not proven the invalidity of any asserted claim of U.S. Patent Nos. 10,091,186 or 10,298,564.

(4) Complainants have not proven the existence of a domestic industry practicing any claim of U.S. Patent Nos. 10,091,186 or 10,298,564.

(5) Complainants have not proven the existence of a domestic industry as required by subsection (a)(2) of section 337.

INITIAL DETERMINATION AND ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is my Initial Determination that there is no violation of Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, or the sale within the United States after importation of certain digital video-capable devices and components thereof, in connection with the asserted claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 10,091,186 and 10,298,564. Furthermore, it is my determination that no domestic industry in the United States exists that practices or exploits U.S. Patent Nos. 10,091,186 and 10,298,564.
