DETERMINATION EXTENDING THE TARGET DATE

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review the presiding administrative law judge's ("ALJ") initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 30), granting a joint motion to extend the target date in the above captioned investigation.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on May 21, 2007, based on a complaint filed by Hewlett-Packard Company ("HP") of Palo Alto, California. 72 Fed. Reg. 28520-1 (May 21, 2007). The complaint, as amended and supplemented, alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain personal computers and digital display devices by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 6,691,236; 6,029,119; 5,353,415; and 6,894,706. The complaint further alleges the existence of a domestic industry. The Commission's notice of investigation named Acer Incorporated of Taipei, Taiwan and Acer America Corporation of San Jose, California as respondents (collectively "Acer").

On May 16, 2008, HP and Acer filed a joint motion to stay the procedural schedule, including issuance of the final ID, and to extend the target date for this investigation in order to allow the parties to conduct good faith settlement discussions. The Commission Investigative Attorney filed no objection to the motion.

On May 20, 2008, the ALJ issued the subject ID granting the joint motion and finding that the parties had established good cause for extending the target date. The ALJ decided that the target date should be extended by two months to October 21, 2008. No petitions for review of this ID were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
