Investigation No. 337-TA-593

NOTICE OF COMMISSION DETERMINATION NOT TO REVIEW AN INITIAL DETERMINATION EXTENDING THE TARGET DATE

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review the presiding administrative law judge's ("ALJ") initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 10) extending the target date in the above-referenced investigation by two months from May 21, 2008 to July 21, 2008.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on February 21, 2007, based on a complaint filed by St. Clair Intellectual Property Consultants, Inc. The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain digital cameras and component parts thereof by reason of infringement of various claims of five United States patents. The complaint names Eastman Kodak Company as respondent.

On February 14, 2008, the private parties filed a joint status report indicating that the California state court action between the parties relating to ownership of the asserted patents has been settled, and that the parties have signed a binding memorandum of understanding. The parties indicated that the memorandum provides for the resolution of all claims between the parties, including the claims asserted in this investigation. Finally, the parties requested that the investigation remain stayed until they can submit a further status report to inform the ALJ of any subsequent developments when the settlement and licensing agreements are finalized. On February 19, 2008, the ALJ issued the subject ID extending the target date by two months to July 21, 2008, making the final ID due on March 21, 2008. No petitions for review of this ID were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
