AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review the presiding administrative law judge's ("ALJ") initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 61) in the above-referenced investigation finding respondent Yee Lee Corporation Bhd. ("Yee Lee") in default.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted Inv. No. 337-TA-608 on July 6, 2007, based on a complaint filed by Tillotson Corporation d.b.a. Best Manufacturing Company (“Tillotson”). The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain nitrile gloves by reason of infringement of various claims in United States Patent No. Re. 35,616. The complaint named over thirty respondents. On September 19, 2007, the ALJ consolidated Inv. No. 337-TA-608 with Inv. No. 337-TA-612.

On August 22, 2007, Tillotson filed a motion for an order to show cause and default against six respondents: Basic Medical Industries, Inc.; Blovco (M) Bhd.; Ideal Healthcare Group Co. Ltd.; Seal Polymer Industries Bhd. (“Seal Polymer”); Supermax Corporation Bhd. (“Supermax”); and Yee Lee. On September 10, 2007, the ALJ issued Order No. 17 ordering these respondents to show cause why they should not be found in default for failing to respond to the complaint and notice of investigation.

Respondents Seal Polymer, Supermax, and Yee Lee all filed responses requesting more time to respond to the complaint. Yee Lee subsequently submitted two more requests for additional time. On November 27, 2008, Tillotson filed a motion for a finding of default against Yee Lee. On February 21, 2008, the ALJ issued another order to show cause why Yee Lee should not be held in default for failing to respond to the complaint and notice of investigation. No responses were received. On March 10, 2008, the ALJ issued the subject ID finding Yee Lee in default. The ALJ also found that Yee Lee had waived its right to appear, to be served with documents, and to contest the allegations against it. No petitions for review of this ID were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.

Secretary to the Commission
