SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on May 2, 2012, based on a complaint filed by Technology Properties Limited, LLC (“TPL”) of Cupertino, California. 77 Fed. Reg. 26041 (May 2, 2012). The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 6,976,623, 7,162,549, 7,295,443, 7,522,424, 6,438,638, and 7,719,847. The complaint further alleges the existence of a domestic industry. The notice of investigation named twenty-one respondents, including Microdia Limited (“Microdia”) of San Jose, California.

On August 14, 2012, complainant TPL filed a motion pursuant to Commission Rule 210.16 for an order directing respondent Microdia to show cause why it should not be found in default based on its failure to respond to the complaint and notice of investigation. The complaint and notice of investigation were served on Microdia on May 3, 2012. TPL's motion further requested the issuance of an ID finding Microdia in default upon failure to show cause. No responses were received.

On October 10, 2012, the ALJ issued Order No. 25 ordering Microdia to show, by October 16, 2012, why it should not be found in default for failure to respond to the complaint and notice of investigation. No response has been received. On October 23, 2012, the ALJ issued the subject ID finding Microdia in default pursuant to Commission Rule 210.16.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
