DETERMINATION EXTENDING THE TARGET DATE

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review the administrative law judge's ("ALJ") initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 40) extending the target date for completion of the investigation to July 21, 2014.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on October 23, 2012, based on a complaint filed by Realtek Semiconductor Corporation ("Realtek") of Hsinchu, Taiwan alleging violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337), as amended, by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 6,787,928 and 6,963,226 ("the '226 patent"). 77 Fed. Reg. 64826. The notice of investigation named as respondents LSI Corporation of Milpitas, California; and Seagate Technology of Cupertino, California.

On March 18, 2014, the ALJ issued an ID extending the target date by four days. The ALJ noted that the government was closed four days due to weather and had a two-hour delayed opening on two other days. The ALJ also noted that the hearing dates were changed due to the government shutdown and subsequent availability of witnesses. These circumstances resulted in two final initial determinations being due within two weeks of each other. No petitions for review were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. Part 210).

By order of the Commission.
