NOTICE OF COMMISSION DECISION NOT TO REVIEW AN INITIAL DETERMINATION TERMINATING THE INVESTIGATION WITH RESPECT TO AMAZON.COM, INC., BASED ON A SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review the presiding administrative law judge’s (“ALJ”) initial determination (“ID”) (Order No. 16) terminating the investigation in part based on a settlement agreement.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Robert Needham, Office of the General Counsel, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20436, telephone (202) 708-5468. Copies of non-confidential documents filed in connection with this investigation are or will be available for inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20436, telephone (202) 205-2000. The Office of Unfair Import Investigations was named as a party to the investigation. Id. The Commission previously terminated this investigation with respect to LBP, Spark, B. Marlboros, and Melitta based on consent orders. Notice (December 18, 2014); Notice (January 13, 2015); Notice (March 27, 2015).

On February 18, 2015, Complainants and Amazon jointly moved to terminate the investigation with respect to Amazon based on a settlement agreement. Complainants and Amazon attached their settlement agreement to their motion, and stated that they had no other agreements, written or oral, express or implied, regarding the subject matter of this investigation. On March 4, 2015, the Commission Investigative Attorney stated that he did not oppose the motion.

On March 18, 2015, the ALJ issued the subject ID, which granted the motion and terminated the investigation with respect to Amazon. The ALJ found that the motion complied with the Commission’s rules and was not adverse to the public interest. No party petitioned for review of the ID.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID.

By order of the Commission.
