AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review the presiding administrative law judge's ("ALJ") initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 34) granting a motion to terminate Buffalo Corporation ("Buffalo") and Target Corporation ("Target") from the above-captioned investigation based on a settlement agreement.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on July 20, 2018, based on a complaint, as supplemented, filed on behalf of Walbro, LLC of Tucson, Arizona ("Complainant"). 83 FR 34,614 (July 20, 2018). The complaint, as supplemented, alleges violations of Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337 ("section 337"), based upon the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain carburetors and products containing such carburetors by reason of infringement of one or more claims of U.S. Patent No. 6,394,424; U.S. Patent No. 6,439,547; U.S. Patent No. 6,533,254; U.S. Patent No. 6,540,212; and U.S. Patent No. 7,070,173. The complaint further alleges that an industry in the United States exists as required by section 337. The Notice of Investigation named numerous respondents, including Buffalo of O’Fallon, Missouri and Target of Minneapolis, Minnesota. The Office of Unfair Import Investigations (“OUII”) was named as a party in this investigation.

On December 19, 2018, Complainant, Buffalo, and Target filed a joint motion to terminate the investigation as to Buffalo and Target based on settlement. The parties state “[a]part from this Settlement Agreement, there are no agreements, written or oral, express or implied between the Parties concerning the subject matter of the investigation.” On December 21, 2018, OUII filed a response in support of the motion.

On January 29, 2019, the ALJ issued the subject ID, granting the joint motion to terminate Buffalo and Target. The ID finds that termination of these respondents from the investigation would not be contrary to the public interest. No party petitioned for review of the ID.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. Part 210).

By order of the Commission.

Secretary to the Commission
