PART I.--GENERAL INFORMATION

The questions in this questionnaire have been reviewed with market participants to ensure that issues of concern are adequately addressed and that data requests are sufficient, meaningful, and as limited as possible. Public reporting burden for this questionnaire is estimated to average 30 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering the data needed, and completing and reviewing the questionnaire. Send comments regarding the accuracy of this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing the burden, to the Office of Investigations, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, SW, Washington, DC 20436.

I-1a. Please report below the actual number of hours required and the cost to your firm of preparing the reply to this questionnaire and completing the form.

_____hours _____dollars

I-1b. We are interested in any comments you may have for improving this questionnaire in general or the clarity of specific questions. Please attach such comments to your response or send them to the above address.

I-2. Provide the name and address of establishment(s) covered by this questionnaire (see page 3 of the instruction booklet for reporting guidelines). If your firm is publicly traded, please specify the stock exchange and trading symbol.

I-3. Please provide the names, street addresses (not P.O. boxes), contacts, telephone numbers, and e-mail addresses of the FIVE largest U.S. importers of your firm's rebar in 2007.

- (b) Can prices be renegotiated during the contract period? _____
- (c) Does the contract fix quantity, price, or both? _____
- (d) Does the contract have a meet or release provision? _____

III-4. If you sell on a short-term contract basis, please answer the following questions with respect to provisions of a typical short-term contract.

- (a) What is the average duration of a contract? _____
- (b) Can prices be renegotiated during the contract period? _____
- (c) Does the contract fix quantity, price, or both? _____
- (d) Does the contract have a meet or release provision? _____

PART III.--MARKET FACTORS--Continued

III-5. What is the average lead time between a customer's order and the date of delivery for your firm's sales of rebar?

Source	Share of sales, 2007	Lead time
From inventory	_____	_____
Produced to order	_____	_____
Total	100 %

III-6. To what extent have changes in the prices of raw materials affected your firm's selling prices for rebar since 2002? Also discuss any anticipated changes in your raw material costs in the future, identifying the time period(s) involved and the factor(s) that you believe would be responsible for such changes. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation that address this issue.

III-7. Have any changes occurred in any other factors affecting supply (e.g., changes in availability or prices of energy or labor; transportation conditions; production capacity and/or methods of production; technology; export markets; or alternative production opportunities) that affected the availability of Turkey-produced rebar in the U.S. market since 2002?

No Yes--Please note the time period(s) of any such changes, the factors(s) involved, and the impact such changes had on your shipment volumes and prices.

III-8. (a) Do you anticipate any changes in terms of the availability of Turkey-produced rebar in the U.S. market in the future?

Increase No change Decrease

(b) If you anticipate changes in supply, please identify the changes, including the time period and the impact of such changes on shipment volumes and prices. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation that address this issue.

III-9. Describe how easily your firm can shift its sales of rebar between the U.S. market and alternative country markets. In your discussion, please describe any contracts, other sales arrangements, or other constraints (including any third-country trade barriers such as tariffs, quotas, or other non-tariff barriers) that would prevent or retard your firm from shifting rebar between the U.S. and alternative country markets within a 12-month period. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation that address this issue.

III-10. Is the product range, product mix, or marketing (including sales over the internet) of rebar in your home market significantly different from the product range, product mix, or marketing of rebar for export to the United States or to third-country markets? Have there been any significant changes in the product range, product mix, or marketing of rebar in your home market, for export to the United States, or for export to third-country markets since 2002?

No Yes--Please describe and quantify if possible.

III-11. Please discuss any anticipated changes in terms of the product range, product mix, or marketing (including sales over the internet) of rebar in your home market, for export to the United States, or for export to third-country markets in the future, identifying the time period(s) involved and the factor(s) that you believe would be responsible for such changes. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation that address this issue.

III-12. (a) Can other products be substituted for rebar?

No Yes--Please list these substitute products in order of importance.

(1) _____ (2) _____ (3) _____

(b) For each possible substitute product, please give examples of applications and end uses for which they are substitutes.

(c) Have changes in the prices of these products affected the price for rebar?

No Yes--To what degree do changes in their prices affect the price for rebar? Does this effect have a time lag? If so, how long is the time lag for each substitute product? Does this vary by type of rebar or final end use?

III-13. Have there been any changes in the number or types of products that can be substituted for rebar since 2002?

No Yes—Please explain.

III-14. Do you anticipate any changes in terms of the substitutability of other products for rebar in the future?

- No Yes—Please describe. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation that address this issue.

III-15. Is the rebar produced by your firm and sold in its home market interchangeable (i.e., can be used in the same applications) with your firm's rebar sold to the United States and/or to third-country markets?

- Yes No—Identify the market(s) and any differences in the products.

III-16. Describe the end uses of the rebar that you manufacture and sell to your home market. If these end uses differ from those of the rebar you sell to the U.S. market or to third-country markets, explain.

III-17. Have there been any changes in the end uses of rebar since 2002?

- No Yes—Please describe.

III-18. Do you anticipate any changes in terms of the end uses of rebar in the future?

- No Yes--Please describe and identify the time period. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation that address this issue.

III-19a. How has demand within your home market for rebar changed since 2002?

- Increased No change Decreased

What principal factors affect changes in demand?

- Increased No change Decreased

What principal factors affect changes in demand?

III-19c. How has demand within the rest of the world for rebar changed since 2002?

- Increased No change Decreased

What principal factors affect changes in demand?

III-20. Do you anticipate any future changes in rebar demand in your home market and the United States and, if known, the rest of the world?

- No Yes--Please describe and identify the time period. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation that address this issue.

III-21. Please compare market prices of rebar in your home market, the United States, and third-country markets, if known. Provide specific information as to time periods and regions for any price comparisons.

III-22. Describe briefly your home market for rebar, including the number of, and competition between, producers.

III-23. Do you face competition from imports of rebar in your home market?

- No Yes--Please identify the country sources of any imports of rebar into your home market.

III-24. Please provide as a separate attachment to this request any studies, surveys, etc. that you are aware of that quantify and/or otherwise discuss rebar supply (including production capacity and capacity utilization) and demand in (1) the United States, (2) each of the other major producing/consuming countries, including Turkey, and (3) the world as a whole. Of particular interest is such data from 2002 to the present and forecasts for the future.

III-25. Does your firm sell rebar over the internet?

No

Yes--Please describe, noting the estimated percentage of your firm's total sales of rebar in 2007 accounted for by internet sales.
