Background

On February 1, 2022, Commerce published the notice of initiation of the sunset review of the AD order on off-road tires from India,¹ pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act).² In accordance with 19 CFR 351.218(d)(1)(i) and (ii), Commerce received notices of intent to participate in these sunset reviews from a domestic producer³ within 15 days after the date of publication of the Initiation Notice.⁴ The domestic producer claimed domestic interested party status under section 771(9)(C) of the Act, as a manufacturer of a domestic like product in the United States.

On March 3, 2022, the domestic producer submitted a timely substantive response within the 30-day deadline

On December 20, 2021, Commerce notified the U.S. International Trade Commission that it did not receive an adequate substantive response from respondent interested parties.⁶ As a result, pursuant to section 751(c)(3)(B) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.218(e)(1)(ii)(C)(2), Commerce conducted an expedited (120-day) sunset review of the Order.

Scope of the Order

The products covered by the Order are off-road tires from India. For a full description of the scope, see the Issues and Decision Memorandum.⁷

Analysis of Comments Received

All issues raised in this sunset review are addressed in the Issues and Decision Memorandum, including the likelihood of continuation or recurrence of dumping and the magnitude of the margins of dumping likely to prevail if the Order were revoked.
