Background.—The final phase of these investigations is being scheduled pursuant to sections 705(b) and 731(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C.

²The Department of Commerce has preliminarily determined that imports of certain cold-rolled steel flat products from Brazil, China, India, Japan, Russia, and the United Kingdom are being, or are likely to be, sold in the United States at less than fair value.

The products described above may be rectangular, square, circular, or other shape and include products of either rectangular or non-rectangular cross-section where such cross-section is achieved subsequent to the rolling process, i.e., products which have been “worked after rolling” (e.g., products which have been beveled or rounded at the edges).
