Background

On September 1, 2021, Commerce published the notice of initiation of the second sunset review of the suspended investigation of lemon juice from Argentina,¹ pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act).² On September 15, 2021, Commerce received a timely and complete notice of intent to participate from domestic interested party Ventura Coastal LLC (Ventura Coastal) within the deadline specified in 19 CFR 351.218(d)(1)(i).³ Ventura Coastal claimed interested party status under section 771(9)(C) of the Act.

On October 1, 2021, Commerce received an adequate substantive response from Ventura Coastal within the 30-day deadline specified in 19 CFR 351.218(d)(3)(i).⁴ Commerce did not receive a substantive response from any respondent interested party and no hearing was requested. As a result, pursuant to section 751(c)(3)(B) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.218(e)(1)(ii)(C)(2), Commerce conducted an expedited (120-day) sunset review of the 2016 Agreement and suspended investigation.

Scope of the 2016 Agreement

The product covered by the 2016 Agreement is lemon juice for further manufacture, with or without addition of preservatives, sugar, or other sweeteners, regardless of the GPL (grams per liter of citric acid) level of concentration, brix level, brix/acid ratio, pulp content, clarity, grade, horticulture method (e.g., organic or not), processed form (e.g., frozen or not-from-concentrate), FDA standard of identity, the size of the container in which packed, or the method of packing.

Excluded from the scope are: (1) Lemon juice at any level of concentration packed in retail-sized containers ready for sale to consumers, typically at a level of concentration of 48 GPL; and (2) beverage products such as lemonade that typically contain 20% or less lemon juice as an ingredient.

Steel Propane Cylinders From the People's Republic of China: Notice of Final Results of Antidumping Duty Changed Circumstances Review

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: On November 19, 2021, the Department of Commerce (Commerce) published the initiation and preliminary results of a changed circumstances review (CCR) of the antidumping duty (AD) order on steel propane cylinders from the People's Republic of China (China). For these final results, Commerce continues to find that Yi Jun Hong Kong Limited (Yi Jun) is the successor-in-interest to Hong Kong GSBF Company Limited (GSBF) and should be assigned the same AD cash deposit rates for purposes of determining AD liability.

DATES: Applicable January 4, 2022.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Katherine Sliney, AD/CVD Operations, Office III, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482–2437.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

On September 30, 2021, Yi Jun requested that, pursuant to section 751(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), 19 CFR 351.216, and 19 CFR 351.221(c)(3), Commerce conduct a CCR of the *Order*¹ to confirm that Yi Jun is the successor-in-interest to GSBF, and to assign it the cash deposit rate of GSBF.² In its submission, Yi Jun states that it underwent a name change, but otherwise was unchanged.³

On November 19, 2021, Commerce initiated a CCR and preliminarily determined that Yi Jun is the successor-in-interest to GSBF.⁴ In the Initiation and Preliminary Results CCR, we provided all interested parties with an opportunity to comment.⁵ However, we received no comments.

Scope of the Order

The merchandise subject to the Order is steel cylinders for compressed or liquefied propane or other gases (steel propane cylinders). The merchandise subject to the Order is properly classified under statistical reporting numbers 7311.00.0060 and 7311.00.0090 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). Although the HTSUS statistical reporting numbers are provided for convenience and customs purposes, the written description of the merchandise is dispositive.⁶

Final Results of Changed Circumstances Review

For the reasons stated in the Initiation and Preliminary Results CCR, Commerce continues to find that Yi Jun is the successor-in-interest to GSBF. As a result of this determination and consistent with established practice, we find that Yi Jun should receive the cash deposit rate previously assigned to GSBF. Consequently, Commerce will instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection to suspend liquidation of all shipments of subject merchandise produced by GSBF Tank Inc.
