SUMMARY: As a result of these expedited sunset reviews, the Department of Commerce (Commerce) finds that revocation of the antidumping duty (AD) orders on seamless refined copper pipe and tube from the People’s Republic of China (China) and Mexico would likely lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping at the levels indicated in the “Final Results of Sunset Review” section of this notice.

On December 20, 2021, Commerce notified the U.S. International Trade Commission that Commerce did not receive an adequate substantive response from respondent interested parties.⁶ In accordance with section 751(c)(3)(B) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.218(e)(1)(ii)(C)(2), Commerce conducted expedited, i.e., 120-day, sunset reviews of the AD Orders.

Analysis of Comments Received

All issues raised in this review are addressed in the Issues and Decision Memorandum, including the likelihood of continuation or recurrence of dumping in the event of revocation of the AD Orders and the magnitude of dumping margins likely to prevail if the AD Orders were revoked. A list of topics discussed in the Issues and Decision Memorandum is included as an appendix to this notice. Parties can find a complete discussion of all issues raised in this review and the corresponding recommendations in the Issues and Decision Memorandum, which is on file electronically via Enforcement and Compliance's Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Centralized Electronic Service System (ACCESS). ACCESS is available to registered users at <http://access.trade.gov>. Final Results of Sunset Review

Pursuant to sections 751(c) and 752(c)(1) and (3) of the Act, Commerce determines that revocation of the AD Orders would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and the magnitude of the margins of dumping likely to prevail would be weighted-average margins up to the following percentages:

Country	Weighted-average margin (percent)
China	60.85
Mexico	27.16

Certain Steel Nails From India, the Sultanate of Oman, Sri Lanka, Thailand, and the Republic of Turkey: Postponement of Preliminary Determinations in the Countervailing Duty Investigations

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

DATES: Applicable March 3, 2022.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Genevieve Coen (India); Thomas Martin (the Sultanate of Oman); Nathan James (Sri Lanka); Laura Griffith (Thailand); or Benjamin Luberda (the Republic of Turkey), AD/CVD Operations, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-3251; (202) 482-3936; (202) 482-5305; (202) 482-6430; or (202) 482-2185, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On January 19, 2022, the Department of Commerce (Commerce) initiated the countervailing duty (CVD) investigations of imports of certain steel nails (steel nails) from India, the Sultanate of Oman (Oman), Sri Lanka, Thailand, and the Republic of Turkey (Turkey).¹ Currently, the preliminary determinations are due no later than March 25, 2022.

Postponement of Preliminary Determinations

Section 703(b)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), requires Commerce to issue the preliminary determination in a CVD investigation within 65 days after the date on which Commerce initiated the investigation. However, section 703(c)(1) of the Act permits Commerce to postpone the preliminary determination until no later than 130 days after the date on which Commerce initiated the investigation if: (A) The petitioner makes a timely request for a postponement; or (B) Commerce concludes that the parties concerned are cooperating, that the investigation is extraordinarily complicated, and that additional time is necessary to make a preliminary determination. Under 19 CFR 351.205(e), the petitioner must submit a request for postponement 25 days or more before the scheduled date of the preliminary determination and must state the reason for the request. Commerce will grant the request unless it finds compelling reasons to deny the request.

On February 24, 2022, the petitioner² in this investigation submitted a timely request that Commerce postpone the preliminary CVD determinations.³ The petitioner stated that it is requesting a postponement because additional time is needed to develop the records and review responses in order to determine accurate CVD rates.⁴

In accordance with 19 CFR 351.205(e), the petitioner has stated the reasons for requesting a postponement of the preliminary determinations, and Commerce finds no compelling reason to deny the request. Therefore, in accordance with section 703(c)(1)(A) of the Act, Commerce is postponing the deadline for the preliminary determinations to no later than 130 days after the date on which this investigation was initiated, i.e., May 31, 2022.⁵ Pursuant to section 705(a)(1) of Investigations, 87 FR 3970 (January 26, 2022) (signed on January 19, 2022).

² The petitioner is Mid Continent Steel & Wire, Inc.

³ See Petitioner's Letter, "Petitioner's Request for Postponement of Preliminary Determinations," dated February 24, 2022.

⁴ Id. at 2.

⁵ The preliminary determination deadline falls on May 29, 2022, which is a Sunday. The following day is the Memorial Day federal holiday. Commerce's practice dictates that, where a deadline falls on a weekend or federal holiday, the appropriate deadline is the next business day.
